

Yarrow Recommends!

Welcome to the first issue of 'Yarrow Recommends!' This newsletter will highlight a few books each half term that we feel your children will love. In addition to this, it will also direct you to some recently released books that children may enjoy and reviews of books children are currently reading!

New to the class library

Where Monsters Lie is Polly Ho-Yen's second novel and follows her popular debut (Boy In the Tower) that we loved reading in class. This book is a spooky, atmospheric tale, steeped in legend and mystery.

It all began on the night of the offering - a tradition in Mivtown to keep the monsters of the loch away from the tiny village. Effie doesn't really believe in the monsters that are supposed to lead you into the water. But shortly after Buster escapes, Effie's mum disappears, and then black slugs begin to show up everywhere...

Mr. Broomhead recommends...

My must-read book of this half term is Who Let the Gods Out by Maz Evans, which links in perfectly to our Ancient Greeks topic. Elliot's mum is ill and his home is under threat, but a shooting star crashes to earth and changes his life forever. The star is Virgo - a young Zodiac goddess on a mission. But the pair accidentally release Thanatos, a wicked death daemon imprisoned beneath Stonehenge, and must then turn to the old Olympian gods for help. A new, exciting and brilliant adventure - the first in a series centred on the Olympian gods. Next in the series is also in our school library!

Class recommendations

Chantelle recommends Beetle Queen by M.G. Leonard because it is 'full of adventure, fun and lots of bugs...lots!'

Jake recommends The Last Wild by Piers Torday because it is 'an adventure book about a boy whose life changes for ever!'

Both George's recommends Gerrard by Matt Oldfield because it is 'a great biography and is perfect for younger football fans...especially Liverpool fans!'

Tanya recommends Rooftoppers by Katherine Rundell because 'it is about a girl called Sophie, who has a mysterious past. It also shows that you can be different!'

Why do we read?
